ATI, or Air Transport Intelligence, is an online resource that provides real-time news coverage, statistics, airline and aircraft information, supplier information, and profiles on Who's Who in the aviation industry.

Access ATI from the TP Library website at <http://spark.tp.edu.sg> and login to start searching.

Navigating the Resource

NEWS

- Latest – the most recent air transport news reported by ATI.
- My ATI – air transport news reports of interest to TP.
- Categories – news reports divided into areas of interest, from airlines in the different geographic regions to technology and US terror attacks.

ARCHIVE SEARCH – search all the news and reports by keyword and limit your search according to criteria like publication title and timescale.

AIRLINES

- Search – for everything you ever wanted to know about an airline, from contact details to traffic statistics.
- Fleet Search – to find airlines that operate or have ordered a particular type of aircraft. For example, in July 2011 Singapore Airlines had 20 Airbus A350-900s on order.
- Results Search – to find carriers by specific financial or traffic criteria, like sales, net margins and number of passengers.

AIRPORT

- Search – for everything you need to know about airports all over the world. For example, did you know that the international airport in Barbados has 1 terminal and 1 runway?
- Traffic Search – find airports that meet certain criteria like total freight or international passenger.

SUPPLIERS

- General – find details on leading industry manufacturers, suppliers and maintenance organisations.
- Maintenance – find leading maintenance companies according to certain criteria like model type or maintenance requirements.

SCHEDULERS

- Schedules – find schedule reports for airlines, aircraft and airports using named destinations and origins.
- Reports – find reports using airline names, aircraft type or airport data.

PEOPLE – find key people in this industry, for example, the president of Kuwait Airways.

EVENTS

- Diary – a list of events taking place in the next few weeks, for example, Aviation Expos.
- Search – find an event using search criteria like country, region or timescale.
- Add your Event – if you think you have an event of relevance to the ATI readers, you may submit the details here.

If you find a report you wish to keep, just look for the print options near the bottom left of your screen.
