Title	The Story of the weeping camel
Performers	Janchiv Ayurzana, Chimed Ohin, Amgaabazar Gonson, Zeveljamz Nyam, Ikhbayar Amgaabazar, Odgerel Ayusch.
Summary	A blend of narrative and documentary footage tells the story of a nomadic Mongolian family who uses a music ritual to entice a camel to accept her newborn colt. When a mother camel refuses to sustain her child, the keepers of the camels often reunite them in a ritual with folk music and chanting, the results of which elicit deep emotion, even causing the mother camel to weep real tears. This film speaks of the very nature of love, the baby camel cannot survive without his mother, just as no animal or person can.
