- Search online for newspaper articles from all over the world
- Combined Searching to specify a DATE
- Search the News to specify a SOURCE
- Booleans
- Reading the article online
- Print, Email, Save

Combined Searching—DATE

If you want to specify a DATE, use the Combined Search option.

- Enter your search terms or keywords in the “Search For” box, using Booleans to expand or narrow your search. For e.g. singapore AND tourism AND (marketing OR advertising)
- Select any date from “Today” to “All available dates” & select the “go” button

Note: the Major US & World News option includes the Singapore Straits Times & Business Times.

Search the News—Source

If you want to specify a SOURCE, use the “Search the News” option.

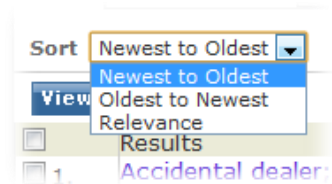

- Enter your search terms or keywords in the “Search For” box
- Start slowly typing in a newspaper title and when the drop down list appears, select the title you want & select the “Go” button

Once you have your search results list, click on a title to read that newspaper article.

If you wish to read articles from the Singapore Straits Times only, click on the drop down icon next to "Newspapers" and select "The Straits Times (Singapore)".

You can also sort your results from the usual Relevance ranking (like Google) to showing either the newest or the oldest articles first.

You may print your newspaper article, email it to yourself, or save it.

Booleans Explained...
